

Distinguished Service Award

Moira Weatherstone joined the Arrochar Team in 1990.

She has within Arrochar Team served as Training Coordinator for two years and as Treasurer for eleven years, in addition to being an active rescuer throughout her membership.

On the national stage she joined SARDA in 1992 and has had a succession of search dogs, Crioch, then Skye and currently Kim. Within SARDA, in addition to being an active search and rescue dog handler, she has held the position of Secretary for five years and has also been an Assessor/Trainer for several years, assisting new handlers and their dogs to reach qualified standard.

Also on the national stage, Moira has been the Scottish Mountain Rescue Treasurer for nine years, a post that she still holds currently. During her tenure she has been instrumental in guiding changes across the board in many aspects of running the organisation. She also works as an instructor on SMR national Search Management Course.

Her dedication and commitment to all aspects of MR over the years make this award most deserved.
