

For those days when it's too wet to go outside, why don't you take a 'walk' around the Scottish Mountain Rescue website?

See if you can find the answers to the following questions:

How many rescue teams does SMR represent?

SMR volunteers are available for how many days a year?

How many of our rescue teams start with the letter A?

Which of these is the most northerly team?

How many Police Scotland MRTs are represented by SMR?

Which one of these is the furthest south?

What type of rescues do members of SCRO attend?

What does SARDA stand for?

Who started SARDA in the UK?

What year did the RAF set up its Mountain Rescue Service?

How many people were assisted by a SMR team in 2019?

What telephone number should you dial if you need to call a mountain rescue team?
